Editor's Letter

Welcome to the premiere issue of Southern Dream Weddings.

With the introduction of this magazine we hope to become a primary information source for all that is wedding related in Alabama and the surrounding southern states.

By purchasing this magazine you are insuring yourself the availability of some of the most up-to-date, informative and helpful information pertaining to planning your perfect wedding.

From the best catering companies to the most unique venues, and most every segment of service provider in between, you will find these pages full of the companies and people who make it their job to create the weddings that dreams are fashioned from.

As with any of our titles, our primary editorial focus with Southern Dream Weddings is that of offering diligently directed and highly beneficial contents that you, the bride to be, can actually use as a planning tool in creating your dream day, while also gaining some tips that will insure you still enjoy the time spent getting there.

We hope you sincerely enjoy and learn from this issue of Southern Dream Weddings and that you will tell other brides-to-be about the magazine, in hopes of it also positively influencing their BIG day.

To the magical wedding of YOUR dreams!
